Converted Business Taxes

Dear Mr. Chianese:

This will acknowledge receipt of your recent letter submitted on your client's behalf seeking an offer in compromise.

Your case is being closed since a review of your client's filing history shows that we are missing returns for a business for which your client is a responsible officer. No consideration can be given to any offer unless all tax filings are current.

Air Distributing Co, Inc., FEIN: 54-0737416, is missing withholding returns for the following periods: 07/2014-09/2014, 10/2014-12/2014, 2014 Recon, 01/2015-03/2015, 04/2015-06/2015, 10/2015-12/2015, 2015 Recon, 01/2017-03/2014, 04/2017-06/2017, 07/2017-09/2017, 10/2017-12/2017, 2017 Recon.

Once the returns have been filed and posted you may resubmit your offer. Include all household income and expenses on the financial statement and attach supporting documents to validate your case. If you were not required to file the returns, you will need to provide us with a written statement within 30 days so your case can be reopened.

Meanwhile, we urge you to contact Agent [REDACTED] for resolution of your account.

Sincerely,
